Ladies!

Stardust Hosts are available for YOUR dancing pleasure!

This is our 98th Dance Weekend and we are pleased to introduce you to the new HONOR'S HAVEN RESORT & SPA (formerly known as the Fallsview Resort). Located only 90 minutes from New York City and Albany on a 250 acres private estate with spectacular surroundings and glorious views of the Shawangunk Mountains.

The new ownership has renovated all the public spaces and the hotel grounds. Best of all, they have 8,000 square feet of wooden dance floor, and Walter Herrmann, the finest chef in the Hudson Valley, making it the perfect dance venue.

DONNA DESIMONE — Instructor of Performing Arts for 36 years, Ballroom & Social dance instructor, choreographer, and performer, Judge and Event Director. Donna holds many amateur & professional dance titles in American, International Latin & Hustle. She has been honored with many appreciation awards for inspirational & outstanding contribution to the art of dance. Currently, Donna resides on Long Island, NY where she teaches all forms of dance, produces monthly Ballroom & Hustle dances at "DanceSport" in NYC and on Long Island under the name "The DanceChange." Donna has been performing with her new partner Joseph Smith since March 2013. Donna has been the Entertainment Director for Stardust Dance weekends since 1993.

FRANK ELIA — Was a night club performer before joining Dance Educators of America in the 1970's. At present he teaches dance for a number of colleges and Fortune 500 companies in order to working as a professional DJ. He is associated with various dance studios in Westchester, NY specializing in choreography for wedding couples.

GALINA NIKITINA — Started to dance at 3 and was offered her first job as dance teacher's assistant at 17 for Rostov-on-Don State University's dance team. In the US she taught at Fred Astaire and Kaiser Dance Academy in Queens and coached advanced students and teachers at Arthur Murray in Long Island, NY. As a competitor in American Rhythm Professional Division Galina danced in finals and won Arthur Murray Championship in 1999. Presently Galina is a guest teacher at BIS dance studio in Moscow, Russia and as a coach at Arthur Murray Studio in Green Brook, N.J.

CAMERON JOHNSON — Hailing from South Africa, Cameron started his dancing career at the age of 5. Cameron is the unbeaten South African International Standard Champion in the Junior, Amateur and Professional ranks. In 1996, Cameron represented South Africa in the Open Fleetwood Professional Championship in Blackpool, England and was placed 6th. In 1996, Cameron represented South Africa in the Open French Masters Professional Championship on the Isle of Reunion and was placed 3rd. In 2000, he was invited to immigrate and teach in the USA where he has since made his home. In 2008, Cameron represented the USA at the World Pro/Am Championship in Buenos Aires, Argentina and was placed 1st. To date, Cameron is still active in the competitive Pro/Am arena where he teaches and moulds his students into the best dancers they can be. Since 1995, Cameron started studying to do his professional qualification exams and, in 1996, achieved a Highly Commended pass rate as an Associate in International Standard through the South African National Council of Ballroom Dancing. In 1999, Cameron also achieved a Highly Commended pass rate as an Associate in International Latin and a Highly Commended pass rate as a Licentiate in International.

JOSEPH SMITH — Joseph was born into a dancing family who owned and operated an Arthur Murray dance studio in Bayshore, NY. He started his training at the age of 7 years old in International Latin and Standard. He was one of the youngest male amateur dancers to win a Latin title. He turned professional at the age of 24 and won several US titles in Latin and Standard. Joseph owned and operated his own ballroom studio on Long Island called "Ballroom Legacy". Since selling the studio he now teaches, choreographs, performs and competes with his students and dance partner Donna Desimone under the name "Ballroom Evolution". Joseph is a staff member of the Stardust Dance Weekends and cruises.

JUNIOR RYES — Junior has been dancing all his young life, influenced by Dominican Folklore music. His dream was to run his own dance company. He has danced many genres of dance styles. He has master instructors like Ray Colon, Eddie Torres and his mentor to this day Marcus Gonzales. He has worked with some of the greats in salsa on 2. Junior has taken Argentine Tango classes with International instructors, Jon Tariq and Anton Gessenbeck to broaden his skills on the dance floor and to become a better-informed and skilled dancer and teacher. Junior Ryes is one of the hidden talents in the Hudson Valley; his students look up to him because of his style, gentle manner and discipline. As an instructor, he adheres to the golden rule of creating your foundation and building from there to a confident dancer. Junior is the owner of Salsa K2Dance Company. Junior and his dance company members are very community conscious and participate in many fundraisers in and around the Hudson Valley Community.

WINGO HOM — Throughout his 40 plus years of dance experience, Wingo achieved more than 450 first place titles, 31 Jack & Jill first place titles, and with his partner, received the International Hustle Dance Association Points Awards as the 2006 Amateur Hustle Dancers of the year. He earned the Top Teacher Award at the World Hustle Dance Championships. At Disco America 2009, he was the Top Male Hustle Teacher.

LEO MORA — born in Costa Rica and moved to the U.S. when he was 18 years old. His desire to learn to dance was derived from his passion and admiration for the art of dance as well as his longing to hold a smoking hot chica in his arms at a salsa nightclub. Leo was a street dancer who started in training class as a student, but was scouted after a very short time because of his natural talents. He started his professional career at Arthur Murray International and has been dancing for almost 10 years in total, three of which have been with his dance partner Christina.

CHRISTINA GARCED — born in the U.S. and started dancing at the age of 3. While training in various styles of dance such as modern, jazz, ballet, lyrical and hip hop, she grew up as a "studio brat" in her parents Arthur Murray Dance Studios. Dancing and competing as an amateur in both International and American styles, she found herself addicted to the limelight and went on to later receive her Bachelor's Degree in English Theatre at NJCU. There she studied vocal performance, dance and acting and found that her exposure to other stage performance helped to inspire and influence her ballroom training. Christina decided to pursue her professional career in the American style because of its boundless creative and uninhibited nature.

ADAM HOOPENGARDNER — excels in many styles of tango. His philosophy of tango is centered on the energy one feels from one's partner, and believes this should inspire the style and movement of the dance. He is confident dancing in open or close embrace and is cherished by followers for his comfortable, clear lead, his creativity, and inspiring musicality. Adam has worked across the US, Canada, Germany, and Poland teaching workshops and at festivals often returning more than once. He is based in New York and Berlin. He has performed and worked with some of today's leading ladies of tango including, Cigdem Tanik, Brigitta Winkler, Rebecca Shulman, Mila Vigdorova, Katherine Gonsuch and Silvina Valz.

CIGDEM TANIK — Her motivation to pursue tango has been the connection to another soul & body, as well as her own, through a music that inspires her. During her visits to Buenos Aires she focused solely in the dance in its original grounds exploring and studying both traditional and nuevo tango roots which developed the Argentine quality in her dance. She embraced both open and close embrace which allowed the ability to move fluidly between the two and be more dynamic and versatile. Her technique gives her a non-restrictive connection with various dancers. Her dance is defined by its sensuality, creative playfulness, musicality and elasticity. She has worked across US and Canada teaching workshops and at festivals. Has worked and performed with powerful leaders such as Adam Hoopengardner, Evan Griffiths, Robin Thomas, Silvina Valz, Andres Anarilla, Somer Surgit, Daniel Tuero, Guillermo Cermeaz and Felipe Martinez.

MICHAEL JAGGER — Co-Artistic Director of Syncoated City Dance Company and has been performing and teaching for over 13 years. His stage credits include being a featured dancer for Wynton Marsalis and the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra in Let Freedom Swing, a celebration of jazz for Martin Luther King Jr. Day at the Kennedy Center and again with the J @ LCO for a tribute to Benny Goodman at the Rose Theater in NYC. As a principal dancer with his partner, Evita Arce, he starred as the Lindy Hop specialist in several productions of the Broadway musical Swing, including regional productions at Pittsburgh Civic Light Opera, the California Music Circus in Sacramento and the 2008 Japanese tour. Along with television and commercial spots, Michael is an instructor for Dance Manhattan studios in NYC.

EVITA ARCE — co-director of Syncoated City Dance Company, is a Jazz dancer specializing in Lindy Hop, Charleston, and partnered dances from the American Swing era. Her directing and choreography has been recognized in Sleigh Bells Swing with the George Gee Orchestra at the Edison Ballroom, President Obama's inauguration celebration with the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra at the Kennedy Center, and in the recurring New Years Eve Show at Lindy Focus. With partner, Michael Jagger, Evita advanced to the Las Vegas finals in Season 3 of So You Think You Can Dance and danced the feature role in Broadway's Japan tour of SWING!

NATHAN BUGHN — "Soft Shoe" Bugh presents a unique, rhythmic style of jazz movement on stage, on screen, and in classrooms worldwide. He performed at Carnegie Hall, with the Josie Say and the New York Pops Orchestra. He danced in David Tutera's "Great Gatsby" wedding on the hit reality series "My Fair Wedding." He performed on FoxNC's "Fox and Friends Christmas" with George Gee and cast members from "Sleigh Bell Swing." And he and Ramona Staffeld exhibited Lindy Hop in Noemi LaFrance's "Agora II," and later with The Vanaver Caravan at the legendary dance mecca, Jacob's Pillow. Nathan and Evita Arce are principle dancers in the Weepies music video "Be My Honey Pie." As a national competitor, Nathan has taken 1st place in Lindy, Slow Dancing, Solo Charleston, Team, and Cabaret divisions—he even holds one title as a follower: 1st 2002 ALHC "Jill and Jack." He performs regularly with New-York companies: Syncoated City and The Vanaver Caravan.

LAINEY SILVER — Based out of NYC, Lainey is a globetrotting jazz era dancer, performer, choreographer, and vintage fashionista. She teaches at Dance Manhattan and for Harlem Swings! — a non-profit for Harlem youths. Lainey stresses connection to your partner, a solid base in fundamentals, and dancing as an expression of the music.

RICHARD MCMURRICH & SUZANNE MOSLEY — have been dancing together for 8 years and are UCWDC Classic Masters competitors representing the Northeast, from New York City and Philadelphia. They have many Division 1 UCWDC titles to their names, and are the UCWDC's 2009 Crystal Advanced World Champions. They are dance teachers, judges, and choreographers, but their first love will always be entertaining audiences by bringing their brand of speed, style and sass to the dance floor!

BRIAN LAWTON — A classically trained dancer from the Pennsylvania School of the Performing Arts with over nine years of experience in ballet, jazz, lyrical, and modern dance. Brian is also well-versed in both the competitive and social styles of Latin and ballroom dancing as an instructor, performer and award-winning competitor. As a freelance instructor, he teaches numerous group and private dance classes every week. In his current hometown of New York City, Brian performs with Syncoated City Dance Company, the Big Apple Lindy Hoppers, and Gound Grippers Dance Company.

SAMANTHA SIGEL — Samantha hails from the Bay Area of California, where she trained and competed in tap, jazz, ballet, hip-hop, and contemporary dance at Castro Valley Performing Arts and found a love for musical theatre in high school. Samantha became primed for performing for large audiences after dancing for the NBA Warriors Junior Jam Squad for three years. Samantha graduated from New York University's Tisch School of the Arts in Dance in 2011. With a background of studying a diverse amount of dance styles, Samantha has found a home in swing and doesn't plan on leaving.

LEON HARRIS — Has been dancing tango since 1992 and has studied with some of the most renowned Argentine Tango instructors. Not only does he dance and organize Argentine Tango events, but also all sorts of Latin dance parties (Salsa, Merengue, Cha Cha, Afro-Cuban dances). Leon teaches small and large groups of students in his studio and other locations throughout the Washington, DC metro area.

DAN VITALI — Host Director. Dan has been associated with Stardust since 1989. He became Stardust's Dance Host Director in 2003. Dan is responsible for the supervision and scheduling of between 12-15 hosts on duty for every ballroom dance event we hold. Despite his many responsibilities, Dan always has fun, as do the many ladies he dances with during each event.

MARION PANOS — Belly Dancer Instructor. In 2009, Marion joined our fitness staff and teaches Belly Dance classes on the weekends. Marion is trained in several styles of dance, including jazz, modern, Afro-Brazilian, African, Middle Eastern and Ballroom. She was a professional Middle Eastern dancer and has been teaching Belly Dance for more than 15 years.

MOLLY GELSOMINO — Certified Zumba Instructor. Originally from Uprate New York, Molly has a diverse background in the arts, including a BA in Dance from the University at Buffalo, over 15 years of performance and choreography in concert dance and 6 years as a Dance Educator in the Brooklyn Public Schools. Molly is a former professional cheerleader for the AFL, and spent 6 years in NYC as a Co-Artistic Director for the Movement Collective Dance Company. As a newer resident of Sullivan County, Molly found Zumba® to be the most exciting way to fuse her passion for dance, music and fitness. Molly enjoys inspiring her clients and encouraging her classes to feel the music, join the party and have a fun fitness experience upon stepping into the studio.

LINDA GILBERG (President) — Coordinates all aspects of each Stardust Event, including reservations, dining room seating, and programming. Linda has been in the hospitality business for over 33 years. Her background includes Reservations Manager at Kutsher's Country Club, Sales Manager at Tavern On The Green, and Purchasing Agent at Terrace On The Park. Linda's passion has always been to be a dancer, but it didn't pan out so she is now throwing herself into making your vacation dance event a memorable one.
