A tremendous treat for real tango aficionados and all those who enjoy great dancers when Carlos Barrionuevo and Mayte Valdes make their first appearance in CT. There is no greater contemporary Argentine Tango dancers than this exciting couple who continue to enthrall audiences with their artistry over the entire globe.

The couple made their U.S. debut at New York's City Center in 2009 and returned to Broadway in 2013, when they were featured performers in the world premier of "Tango Essence".

Carlos and Mayte are part of the best and most prestigious tango festivals around the world and recently completed their first feature film "Eliana" in which they are the stars. They consider among their highlights traveling and performing with Grammy Award winning pianist Pablo Zigler.
