Antonio "Junior" Cervila & Guadalupe Garcia

A tremendous treat for tango aficionados and all those who enjoy great dancing.

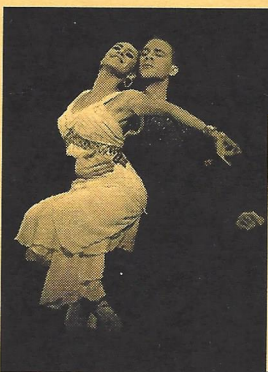

Considered the greatest Argentine Tango team in the world today, they continue to enthral audiences in the most prestigious festivals on every continent. "Explosive" best describes Cervila and Garcia. Featured in the hit "Tango Argentina," and danced at Lincoln Center and NY's Town Hall. Danced in the film "Tango," and with the Rolling Stones and Julio Iglesias shows touring Argentina. Cervila is called "the Gene Kelly of Latin Dance."

Sam Hacke & Katarina Hermanova

This young couple from Slovakia are silver medalists for the World Dance Council's World 10-Dance title held in Moscow in April. They are United States National 21-and-under Champions and seven-time U.S. standard representative for the world crown. Other major dance achievements include being finalists in Blackpool and six additional, highly sought-after competitions. Besides their busy dance schedule, they have found time to now attend college in the U.S. - Sam attends Rutgers and Katarina attends Columbia.

Kurt Roberts & Anneliece Velasco

Current American Rhythm Champions and National Professional Show Dance Champions

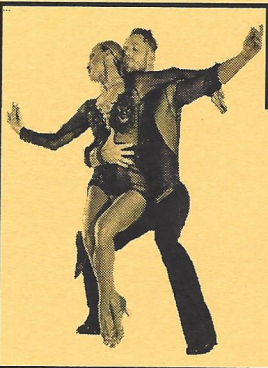

of the Fred Astaire studios across America. On the independent competitive dance circuit, they have been successful being a finalist at the coveted Ohio Star Ball. Anneliece, originally from Mexico City, began her dance training at age five with the Royal Ballet in London, later turning from contemporary dance to ballroom. Kurt, from Chicago, and Anneliece danced out of Wisconsin for 6 years before recently opening a FAD studio in Smithtown, L.I.

Charlie and Emily Roberts

With pride we introduce American born, two-time World American-Style Smooth Champions. Met and married while in college at Brigham Young University where they were members of the world renown formation dance team. Won US National titles each of the four years while in college and two British crowns. Brigham Young has been world formation champions 31 of the 32 years this competition has been in existence. Members of the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dance, they teach out of Stamford's Metropolitan Dance Center.

Pasha Pashkov & Daniella Karagach

One of two sensational Latin couples in the show. Earlier this year they won the highly competitive United Kingdom Professional Rising Star Championship in London by defeating the top couples in the world. Pasha, originally from Moscow, and his American-born partner are 3-time United States National 10-Dance Champions and United States National Latin champions. They were silver medalists when the world title was held in Tokyo, and the U.S. representative when the European title was contested in Tallin, Estonia.

Alexander Chernositov & Arina Grishanina

This couple captured the prestigious Millennium Crown, San Diego Beach Bash and Florida Superstar events. They finished 3rd among the American teams at the UK Open. Arina is a former Blackpool Champion. In 2016, they scored a tremendous victory in Italy by capturing the Naples Open and they were invited to perform in New York's Dance Legends show. Alexander and Arina were headline performers in the U.S. tour production of the show "Dancing Pros Live" produced by Troika, that produced Cats and West Side Story.
