DONNA DESIMONE - Instructor of Performing Arts, Ballroom, Choreographer, Performer & Judge. Donna has been teaching dance for 32 years. Her knowledge of Ballet, Tap, Jazz, Lyric, Broadway Theater and Ballroom has greatly influenced her Hustle style. In 1975 Donna was introduced to a dance called the Hustle. Donna became a Hustle dancer on the television show "Soap Factory Disco" in 1977. In 1978 she opened her first dance studio. Four years later opened her second studio. In 1983 she discovered the world of Ballroom dancing. She trained and competed for 8 years under Roberto Pagan and many well known coaches in American & International styles. In 1985 took 5th in her first ballroom competition at the USBC. In 1986 took 1st at the Virginia State Ballroom Championships in Latin, Won 1st place at 1986 Ohio Star Ball State Championships. In 1986 she won her first National Title, "USBC American Rhythm Champion" in Miami Florida. In 1990 Donna entered the well known Zackary's Dance Competition and took 1st place. One year later winning the Tri State Open Hustle Championships sponsored by Night Life Magazine. Donna went on to choreograph for dance tours to China, Italy, Florida, Hershey Park, Carnegie Hall ("Cole Porter's 100th Birthday Celebration") and "An Invitation to Dance" with the NY Pops Orchestra.

WINGO HOM - known as "The Dance Doctor" was born and raised in New York City. At age 11, he was introduced to partner dancing by his classmates' parents. They were social dancers and demonstrated a variety of dances in their living room, which awakened his passion for all dances. His determination and motivation has rewarded him by studying under some of the finest instructors and coaches, which has led him to compete in an array of dances such as Hustle, American and International styles of Ballroom, Latin, East Coast Swing, West Coast Swing and Salsa. He is known for his unique technique for diagnosing and improving your dance. The dance doctor makes house calls, you supply the floor space and he will bring the knowledge. Wingo has over 50+ years of dance experience and multiple accomplishments, which include: The 2015 Winner of the Artie Phillips Lifetime Achievement Award, Recipient of the 2014 Employee of the Year Award for Stardust Dance Productions, Winner of 10 Top Teacher Awards, Winner of the 2009 Dancing with the Stars tour version in Cha Cha and East Coast Swing competition in Wilkes Barre, Pennsylvania, 2006 Amateur Male Hustle Dancer of the Year, First and only amateur Hustle couple, with partner Angela McCabe, to defeat a professional Hustle couple in a competition, 649 first place titles, 34 Jack and Jill first place awards. Wingo is one of the very few instructors that is certified (lead and follow) in Hustle, 12 different American Smooth and Rhythm Styles at the full Bronze and Silver Levels. He is also certified to judge Dance competitions in all levels. Wingo is a familiar presence in the Hustle, Swing and Salsa community and is currently teaching in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Florida.

LEON HARRIS - started his association with the dance community after retiring from the US Navy. His first dance was the Brazilian dance Lambada, moved on to ballroom, and finally developed a love for Argentine Tango. Viewing dance as an extension of his interaction with people, Leon focuses on teaching good dance technique and building confidence in his students. Being calm and understated, his students find his classes easy going, stress free, but meet their goal of learning to dance. Being located in Washington DC, his training has included local ballroom studios, workshops with visiting dance professionals, salsa and Argentine Tango dance festivals in the US, South America, the Caribbean, and Europe; tango workshops in Buenos Aires and Dubai, and two summer sessions at Stanford University for Argentine Tango. Seven workshops at the Conjunto Folklorico Nacional Habana (Cuba) provided him with a focus on Cuban dance history. Afro Cuban Folklorico, Cuban social dances, and the dances of Santaria. Although he was a student, he taught Argentine Tango while in residence at the Conjunto. As a former Stardust dance host, his experience opened doors for him to hosting/teaching on all the major cruise lines. On the Queen Mary 2, he danced around the world and taught Argentine Tango to a group of beginners that resulted in a performance for the ship. For the past 20 years, his home has served as his dance studio for Latin and Argentine Tango classes.

CAMERON JOHNSON - Our newest dance instructor at Stardust. Hailing from South Africa, Cameron Johnson started his dancing career at the age of 5, under the tutelage of his parents. Cameron is the unbeaten South African International Standard Champion in the Junior, Amateur and Professional ranks. In 1996, Cameron represented South Africa in the Open Heetwood Professionals Championship in Blackpool, England and was placed 6th. Also in 1996, Cameron represented South Africa in the Open French Masters Professional Championship on the Isle of Reunion and placed 3rd. In 2000, Cameron was invited to immigrate and teach in the USA, where he has since made his home. In 2008, Cameron represented the USA at the World Pro/Am championship in Buenos Aires, Argentina and was placed 1st.

LOURDES CRUZ - has been dancing from a very young age and began teaching & competing professionally in 1996. Her dance background extends from Ballroom & Latin Dancing, Folk, Belly Dance, West Coast Swing & Argentine Tango. Her 13 Ballroom Dance Major along with her interdisciplinary teaching experience and studies in music, martial arts, & speech pathology contribute to the versatility of her dancing and teaching style. Currently she is Program Director and Lead Instructor of the Dance Program at Inneight Movement Studio in Hyde Park, NY.

LHANN JONES - has spent most of her life dancing or performing in some fashion. From her parent's nightclub in Montana and Idaho, to acting in television shows and commercials, to the parade routes and stages of DisneyLand, to the odd dance halls of the West Coast where she danced with the Joint is Jumpin' swing troupe, Lhann loves to learn, perform, and teach dance. In 2005, Lhann relocated to Buffalo, NY and worked as a full-time dance instructor and performer for a local ballroom dance studio. She performed in various DanceSport competitions throughout the country in the Pro/Am Division, her students consistently placing high in the scholarship and multi-dance divisions. In 2010 she received her Associate Certification in Ballroom from the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing. In 2012 she also received her Associate Certification in American Ballroom from the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing. In 2013, Lhann helped develop Suneel's Celebrity Gala for the Suneel's Light Foundation; a ballroom dance competition with local celebrities and professional ballroom dancers performing to raise funds for children with Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy. In 2014, in order to better share her great joy for dancing, Lhann created Ballroom Revolution, a dance studio dedicated to teaching body awareness, connection between dance partners, and how to have fun and feel confident in any dance situation. She continues to develop her dance and teaching skills by attending multiple Lindy Hop conferences, Ballroom symposiums, Argentine tango workshops, and teacher seminars a year.

MATT HAUER - was born in Guadalajara Mexico, and was adopted at one month old. He was raised in the Bronx of New York, until the age of 25. For high school, Matthew was accepted into Fioello H. Leguadario High School of Music, and Performing Arts, majoring in dance. He received his Diploma in 2001, with a strong foundation of ballet and modern dance. Matt continued his training and was also accepted into SUNY Purchase, Conservatory of Dance. He studied many various modern dance styles such as Graham, Morris, Cunningham, Limon, Taylor, Alexander techniques, classical ballet, partnering, improv, and compositional classes to further his education. In 2005, he had graduated with a Bachelors in Fine Arts. Throughout the school years, he took Ballroom Dance lessons on the weekends, and heavily competed throughout North America. Some of his most prestige titles are as follows: He was named the 2004 and 2005 National Amateur American Rhythm Champion. In 2006, he was the National Professional American Rhythm Rising Star Champion. In 2008, he won both the French Open Championships, and was crowned the World Mambo Champion. He also won the 2014 and 2015 National Mambo Championships, and was also the 2014 World Salsa Champion. He performed for many charities, benefits, and shows throughout the world. Matt is currently a full time teacher and coach to all kinds of students, kids, and even Olympic level dancers. He still competes professionally, and with his students. He hopes to inspire lives through his work.

ANASTASIA JEROMINA - was born in Riga, Latvia where she started ballroom dancing at the age of 5. She had a very successful dance career in the Juvenile and Junior categories. Representing her home country as a Ballroom, and Latin-American dancer, Anastasia chose to follow her passion more towards the Latin-American dance style, which where she began her dance journey on an international level. Ms. Jeromina resided, trained, and studied in these following countries, to pursue her passion and drive in the beautiful Ballroom sport. From Latvia to Russia, then Germany, Sweden, The Netherlands and Canada. She had an honor to represent some of these countries at the World Championship events, and also European Championships as well. Now currently living in the US, Anastasia is given the opportunity to learn a new dance style, and perfect her skills in American Rhythm Category.

SAM POLESCHUK - began dancing at a young age in Belarus. He started dancing both Standard and Latin however, eventually he decided to focus on Latin. After great success in his country, Sam decided to move to the States to further his career in dancing and teaching. Sam specializes in Latin and is an expert at technique! From teaching beginners, to creating finalist in pro/am competitions, Sam is a wonderful well rounded instructor!

JILL APOSTOLICO - is a Latin dancer and a dress designer from New Jersey. She started as both a standard and Latin dancer, but chose to focus on her Latin. After a wonderful career as an amateur, she decided to dance professionally in 2011. She loves teaching children and couples, and truly enjoys working with people! Sam and Jill began their career together in 2011. With their vibrant personalities, they are definitely a great team! They are currently teaching in NY and NJ, and are Professional Rising Star Latin Finalist NY/NJ!

MARIANO LOGIUDICE - at the age of 7 started to study Karate and was doing it for many years. In the meantime he discovered the tango, and started to study very intensively this new passion. He learned from very prominent teachers in the tango world as Raul Bravo, Juan Pablo Barbatti, Guillermina Quiroga, Andres Gajas, Olga Besio, Denian Garcia, Julio Balmaceda, among others. For the last 4 years he has been the assistant and partner of Guillermina Quiroga in all her classes in Buenos Aires and in her choreography composition works. He was giving tango classes as a teacher in Tandubá, Buenos Aires, Escuela de Tango de Buenos Aires, Club Grice!, Salon Camina. He graduated from the University in Argentina as a psychologist, with the thesis "Tango y vejez" ("Tango and elderly") which explores the psychological benefits of the tango dancing on the elder people. He received a lot of compliments and special mention from the university judges with his work, and was placed to keep going further on that path. This inspires Mariano to investigate more and leads him into creating a new activity that is a mixing of tango dance and physical education; together with Guillermina, they start a new discipline, the union of tango dance and psychology, as therapy for people with physical and emotional needs. As Guillermina's partner, Mariano has taught and performed at the tango festival in Napoli, Italy and many other tango festivals in the United States. The last four years they been teaching and performing in Europe, Asia, and many cities in United States.

GUILLERMINA QUIROGA - is considered one of the best female tango dancers in the world. She started her career at age six as a ballerina, and at 23 she discovered the "Tango". A bit later, she entered the world of the milongas (social dance halls) in Buenos Aires, and in 1989 she was awarded the first prize in the Hugo del Carril Contest, organized by the City of Buenos Aires. In her dancing career, she's been a soloist with the Julio Iglesias World tour; she has performed along the Luis Bacalov, Mariano Mores and Color Tango orchestras; and she's taken part of critically acclaimed shows like Tango x 2, Tango Argentino and Forever Tango on Broadway. She's been featured in many films: "Naked Tango", "Marie Galant", "Assassination Tango" and "Valentina's Tango". Combining her talent as a dancer, teacher, choreographer and actress, she has also produced her own show: "tango, Historias Breves". Ms. Quiroga, a queen of tango since the last century is considered by The New York Times "the Fonteyn of tango". The NY based newspaper says that "the spell of her style begins in her stance. She has a marvellously composed persona and memorably elegant posture". The LA Times says that Guillermina "is famous for fusing traditional tango steps with hyper-flexible leg extensions and athletic lifts. An engaging stage presence and a formidable talent."

RICHARD MCNURRICH AND SUZANNE MOSLEY - have been dancing Country Western together for 8 years and are UCWDC Classic Masters competitors representing the Northeast, from New York City and Philadelphia. They have many Division 1 UCWDC titles to their names, and are the UCWDC's 2009 Crystal Advanced World Champions. They are dance teachers, judges, and choreographers, but their first love will always be entertaining audiences by bringing their brand of speed, style and sass to the dance floor!

TEDDY KERN - is a master teacher, dance stylist and choreographer. She has been on the faculty of the Dance Division of Baruch College, The Butler School, West Side Dance Project, and was co-owner and Artistic Director of Dance Manhattan. She continued teaching and choreographing throughout the country. She cofounded the American Swing Dance Championships, the first national Swing event to bring east and west coast dancers together to teach, compete, and collaborate in one venue. She was a member of the New York Swing Dance Society Board of Directors prior to opening Dance Manhattan Dance Studio. She holds graduate degrees from the Universities of Kansas and California, and is a frequent author on articles of social dance, exercise, and dance history for professional journals. Her choreography is represented in the Dance Archives of the Library and Museum of Performing Arts in Lincoln Center. She has been a faculty member of the Juillard School's American Opera Center, Eastman School of Music Division, Butler School of Dance, Institute for Social Dance Studies, Dance Masters of America, and Professional Dance Teachers Association. She is a board member of New York's Women in the Arts and Media Coalition. She has choreographed for the Santa Fe Opera, Kansas City Lyric Opera, Eastman Opera Theatre, Pittsburgh Opera, and Chautauqua Opera, where she remains an artist-in residence every summer. Teddy has taught master classes for the Young Artists Programs at Hawaii Opera Theatre, and Lyric Opera of Chicago. She has choreographed for Broadway, Off Broadway, cabaret, the annual Venetian Opera Ball and the Debutante Cotillion at the Waldorf Astoria. In 2004, Teddy was inducted into the Living Legends of Dance. Teddy has done more for Social Dancing, and helped countless people start and advance their dance and instructing careers company for over a decade.

GALINA NIKITINA - Started to dance at age 3 and was offered her first job as a dance teacher's assistant at age 17 for Rosov-on-Don State University's dance team. Later she was promoted to an instructor and then to a Choreographer and their Assistant Director. Under her supervision, the University's Dance team was named top dance team in Russia. As a ballroom dancer, she won many prestigious Russian competitions. In the US she has taught at Arthur Murray, Fred Astaire, independent studios as well as her own studio. Currently teaches at the IM Gallery in Island Park, New Jersey and at various studios in central NJ, as a guest teacher at BIS Dance Studio in Moscow, Russia. Her teaching skills cover both American and International styles, and ranges from beginner social all the way up to advanced and competitive levels.

MARION PANOS - In 2009, Marion joined our fitness staff and teaches Belly Dance classes on the weekends. Marion is trained in several styles of dance, including jazz, modern, afro-Brazilian, African, Middle Eastern and Ballroom. She is proficient in American style ballroom and Latin and has also studied International Standard. She competed around the country at the pro-am level in American style ballroom and Latin for many years. She was a professional Middle Eastern dancer and has been teaching Belly Dance for more than 15 years.

MOLLY GELSONIMO - Originally from Upstate, New York. She has a diverse background in the arts, including a BA in Dance from the University at Buffalo, over 15 years of performance and choreography in concert dance and 6 years as a Dance Educator in the Brooklyn Public Schools. Molly is a former professional cheerleader for the AFL, and spent 6 years in NYC as a Co-Artistic Director for The Movement Collective Dance Company. As a newer resident of Sullivan County, Molly found "Zumba" to be the most exciting way to fuse her passion for dance, music and fitness. Molly enjoys inspiring her clients and encouraging her classes to feel the music, join the party and have a fun fitness experience upon stepping into the studio.

DAN VTALI - Has been associated with Stardust since 1989. He became Stardust's Dance Host Director in 2003. Dan is responsible for the supervision and scheduling of between 12-15 hosts on duty for every ballroom dance event we hold. Despite his many responsibilities, Dan always has fun, as do the many ladies he dances with during the events.

LINDA GILBERG (President) - coordinates all aspects of each Stardust Event, including reservations, dining room seating, and programming. Linda has been in the hospitality business for over 33 years. Her background includes Reservations Manager at Kutscher's Country Club, Sales Manager at Tavern On The Green, and Purchasing Agent at Terrace On The Park. Linda's passion has always been to be a dancer, but it didn't pan out, so she is now dedicating herself into making your vacation dance event a memorable one.
